

NURSES COUNCIL NOW ACCEPTING MEMBERS

CAHF Nurses Council is excited to announce that we are looking for nurses that want to be at the forefront in providing input for legislative and administrative decisions that impact the health care community.

Did you know that as a member of CAHF you are eligible to join the CAHF Nurses Council for free?

If you would like to join our council or even become a Nurses Council Officer, sign up by completing the CAHF Nurses Council Member Information Profile.

About Nurses Council

The CAHF Nurses Council promotes the profession of nursing in the long-term care setting and in the health care continuum; represents the nursing profession before governmental agencies and the public; enhances educational programs for all levels of nursing; and seeks to encourage, motivate and retain nursing professionals in the health care setting.

- Council Goals:
 - To promote professionalism in the practice of long-term care nursing.
 - To represent the nursing profession to the Department of Health Care Services, California Department of Public Health, the California State Legislature, consumer groups and the general public.
 - To develop educational programs for all levels of nursing in the long-term care facility.
 - To present meaningful and useful professional education programs at CAHF statewide quarterly and annual meetings and chapter meetings.
 - To recruit the challenge-oriented nurse to the long-term care setting. To promote recognition of the commitment and contributions made by nurses in long-term care.
- Benefits of Membership:

Membership in the Council has many benefits. As a Council member, you will have access to CAHF Member Only information at this website. You will also be eligible to receive benefits from the products and services division of the association.
- Additionally, Council members are eligible to participate in all CAHF and Council continuing education offerings including those specifically for long-term care nurses.
 - Attend three statewide quarterly conferences which include high-quality, timely education programs and at which the Council conducts its business meetings.
 - Participate in CAHF's annual convention and trade show -- the largest long-term care trade show in the United States -- sharing social events and networking with other long-term care professionals.
 - Provide input into legislative and administrative decisions that impact the long-term care community.
